

2 DAYS TOUR TO ISSYK-KUL

Day 1. BISHKEK – KARAKOL (420km/6-7h)

08:00 - meet guide and driver at the hotel and transfer to the Issyk-Kul lake, which is also famous as “Pearl of Kyrgyzstan”.

09:30 - On the way, you visit Burana tower, the ruins of ancient city Balasagyn, dating to 10th -11th centuries. The Museum has archeological findings of residential constructions remnants, crockery, coins, sculptures, and other archaeological monuments.

12:00 - Lunch in Kyrgyz family near Tokmok town.

13:30 - drive to Cholpon-Ata town and have a city tour, visiting Rukh-Ordo Cultural center, Regional and open-air museum of petroglyphs, which come from Stone Age. There are about 10 000 and most of them were found at the place, which used to be a Sun Worshipping Temple.

19:00 - After half-day excursions, you will drive to the Karakol town and check in at the guesthouse. Dinner in local café.

Overnight at the guesthouse.

Meals: lunch, dinner.

Day 2. KARAKOL – JETI OGUZ – BISHKEK. 430 km. 7h.

Breakfast at the guesthouse.

08:00 - In the morning check out and have a city tour in Karakol, which include visiting of Przhevalsky Museum, Russian traveler who died in Karakol and was buried on lakeshore of the Issyk-Kul lake, Dungan Mosque built without nail and Russian Holy-Trinity church built on the place of old stone church.

10:00 - In the afternoon leave Karakol and drive to the Jety-Oguz gorge. This is a lush valley with striking red sandstone rock formations (the «seven bulls» from which the valley takes its name). As you approach the valley, you pass another rock formation, which resembles a «broken heart», and legend says that this is the heart of a beautiful woman who died of a broken heart after two suitors killed each other fighting over her. These two rock formations have become symbols of the Issyk-Kul region and are favorite images for photographs and paintings.

13:00 – Lunch at the yurt camp Manzhyly Ata.

14:00 – An eagle-hunting show.

14:40 – Continue way to Bishkek.

Meals: breakfast, lunch.
